TO MAKE A FOND A HARBOR.
Rock Island to be a Greater Summer Resort Than Ever When Ocean Connection Is Made.
Hartford, April 14.—The sum of $25,000 was appropriated by the Rhode Island legislature in 1894 toward the construction of a canal connecting Great Salt pond, on Block Island, with the Atlantic ocean on the west, thereby providing a land-locked harbor for the largest ocean craft approaching the New England coast. The town of New Shoreham, on Block Island, appropriated $25,000 for the same object. Great Salt pond is in New Shoreham, and covers an area of 1,200 acres. Eight hundred acres of this tract is covered with navigable water, the depth varying from fifteen to sixty feet.
The entrance to the channel from the ocean will be protected by two sand-light breakwaters, the extreme points of which will be 600 feet apart.
The channel, or canal, leading to the land-locked waters will be fifteen feet deep and 400 feet in width. The excavations will aggregate 333,000 cubic yards. One hundred and fifty thousand cubic yards have been excavated by the Hartford Dredging company, which received the contract for the work last August.
The work is carried on under the direction of Charles H. Latham of this city. Mr. Latham, to get his steam dredges into inland waters, availed himself of an old sluiceway that was cut through from the Atlantic sea years ago. Before the construction of the sluiceway the waters of the lake were fresh, and the ocean tides were let in to destroy the stagnations of the water, which had become a serious embarrassment to the islanders. But the idea of a land-locked harbor had not then been entertained by anyone.
The United States government has built at great cost an artificial harbor on the opposite side of the island. The government breakwater, together with the harbor, has cost not far from $270, 000.
The project that is now being carried out by the state of Rhode Island and the town of New Shoreham was originated by State Senator C. E. Champlin of Block Island. The advantages of the enterprise were brought to the attention of congress last fall, and a survey of the new harbor was ordered. This will be made for the purposes of ascertaining if it is desirable that the government should assist in the expenditure.
The trip from New London to Block Island will be shortened three-quarters of an hour by the new canal. The Sag Harbor and New York and Block Island Steamboat companies are considering the advantages of the new line, which is to develop the west shores of Block Island, opening an entirely new field for summer resorts.
The new harbor will be one of great attractions for yachtsmen. The excavations of the canal connecting the lake with the Atlantic will be completed in June. The construction of the two breakwaters, which will run out 800 feet into the ocean, is now in progress under the direction of Stillman Samuels of Block Island, and will be finished during the summer.

Yale, 16; Virginia, 9.
Richmond, Va., April 13.—Yale and the University of Virginia played a loose and uninteresting game here this afternoon, which can be characterized as a comedy of errors. Carter pitched four innings and was freely baited.
Score:
University of Virginia 1 0 0 0 2 4 2 0—9 Yale 5 4 3 0 4 0 0 8—16 Batteries—Cochran, Nelson and Neeley; De Forest, Carter, Trudeau, Speer

Veterans' Anniversary.
The veteran association of the department of the south and south Atlantic blockading squadron will hold its fourth annual meeting at Hotel St. George, Brooklyn, N. Y., to-day, April 15, at 5:30 p. m.
A banquet will be served at 7:30 p. m.
Vice President W. S. Wells, of New Haven, of the association, will have charge of the afternoon meeting. General Stewart L. Woodford, president of the association, will preside at the banquet. General E. W. Serrell will read a paper on the "Engineering Operations in the Department of the South," and other prominent and well known men will be present and speak on the occasion.
All who are interested in the history of the department of the south and in the naval operations in and around Charleston, will be welcomed by their friends, whether veterans or not, and letters appropriate to the occasion from those who are unable to be present will be received with appreciative thanks.
The thirty-fourth anniversary of the surrender of Fort Sumter—the actual commencement of the war of the rebellion—and the thirtieth anniversary of the restoration of the flag at that fort—the virtual ending of the war—should be an occasion of special interest, not only to the veterans of the army and navy associated with the military and naval operations in the department of the south and the waters of Charleston harbor, but also to all who were in the great conflict with which Fort Sumter and Charleston are conspicuously linked.
Service in the department of the south and in the south Atlantic blockading squadron during the civil war constitute eligibility to membership in the above association. Sons are also eligible and welcome. The annual dues are $1.
Banquet tickets to ladies and gentlemen are $1 each. Appropriate music will be rendered during the banquet by the hotel orchestra.
To Visit London.
President Charles F. Clark of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company, will go to London as one of the delegates to the world's railroad congress next June.
Hicks—They tell me that you and your neighbors were quite generous with that tramp last week; that you fed him and clothed him in fine shape. Hicks—You see, we thought he was a brother Mason from the signs he gave us. It was only after a while that we found he was only a deaf-mute.—Boston Transcript.

HEPTASOPH CONVENTION.
SUPREME CONCLAVE TO MEET IN THIS CITY NEXT MONTH.
Sessions to be held in Harmonie Hall—Public Meeting to be held in Hyperion—Governor Coffin and Mayor Hendrick Expected to be Present and Make Addresses.
The next session of the supreme conclave, Improved Order of Heptasophs, will be held in this city at Harmonie hall during the fourth week of next month, commencing Tuesday afternoon, May 21, at 2 o'clock. The New Haven house will be the headquarters, and all delegates will report there as early as possible on Tuesday, May 21, and present their credentials to the committee on mileage and per diem, who will be in session after 9 o'clock that morning.
The program and arrangements for the entertainment of the supreme conclave are not yet entirely completed, but are in the hands of a competent committee on arrangements consisting of Judge Livingston W. Cleaveland, Edward F. James and John B. Judson.
This committee has made a report to the supreme officers of the order, which is substantially to the effect that while all the arrangements in reference to transportation have not yet been completed, still it is thought that all persons in attendance on the sessions of the supreme body will be given transportation at greatly reduced rates.
A committee of reception from the several New Haven conclaves will meet all trains arriving at the Union depot on Tuesday, May 21, and escort the members of the supreme conclave on their arrival to their respective hotels.
Ample hotel arrangements have been made for all the 400 or more delegates to the session of the supreme conclave.
Thursday evening, May 23, a public meeting will be held in the Hyperion under the auspices of the several New Haven conclaves. At this meeting his excellency, O. Vincent Coffin, governor of the state, and His Honor Mayor Albert C. Hendrick, of this city, will be present, and it is expected make addresses. Addresses will also be made by the supreme officers and members of the supreme conclave, and a delightful entertainment of vocal and instrumental music has been arranged for.
On Tuesday evening, May 21, a public meeting will be held in the Grand opera house, Meriden, under the auspices of the Meriden conclave. The exercises will be of a very interesting character. The mayor of Meriden will preside and will welcome the delegates to the "Silver City." The address of welcome will be responded to by F. L.
Brown of Scranton, Pa., supreme ar-chon, and there will also be short addresses by other members of the supreme body. A very choice program of music, etc., will be given, and a special excursion train will run from this city to Meriden on that occasion.
At the present time there are three subordinate conclaves of Heptasophs in this city, with a total membership of about 500. These are Yale, Quinnipiac, and New Haven, and they number among their membership many who are prominent in business and official life in this city. Judge of Probate Livingston W. Cleaveland is a member of Yale conclave, a member of the supreme conclave and also a member of the supreme conclave committee on laws and appeals.

A NEW SYNAGOGUE.
Fifteen Thousand Dollars Already Pledged and Twenty Thousand Dollars Equity in the Present Synagogue Property.
The project of the congregation Mish-kan Israel for building a new synagogue to take the place of the present structure on Court street, between Orange and State streets, is by no means abandoned. Fifteen thousand dollars have already been pledged, and the society has $20,000 equity in their church property. The congregation is in no hurry, as no suitable site has been decided upon for the new synagogue. When the present synagogue property is sold it is probable that a site will soon be selected and the construction of the new synagogue pushed along vigorously. It is intended that it shall be a structure of beauty and elegance such as will be an ornament to the city.
